GSWA RESUMES TRASH COLLECTION SERVICES AND OFFICES WILL REOPEN THURSDAY, APRIL 16th.

(Guam, April 15, 2026) – GSWA will be resuming trash collection services and reopen its facilities tomorrow. The following change in schedule is being implemented for this week:

Revised Collection Schedule:

- Monday Customers: Trash collection services are scheduled for Thursday, April 16th. Trash carts should be placed curbside as soon as Condition of Readiness (COR) 4 is declared.
- Tuesday Customers: Trash collection services are scheduled for Friday, April 17th.
- Wednesday Customers: Trash collection services are scheduled for Saturday, April 18th.
- Thursday Customers: Trash collection services are cancelled this week and will resume Thursday, April 23rd.
- Recycle Collection for all routes: Collections will be suspended until Friday, April 24th and will be delayed one week for the remainder of April through May 2026. The revised schedule will become available on our website this week.

Customers are asked to place their trash carts curbside before 3:00am to ensure trash is collected, with the exception of Monday Customers that will await COR4 declaration.

GSWA curbside residential customers will be allowed to dump at the Residential Transfer Stations for free from April 16th through April 22nd. All others will be normally charged.

We appreciate the understanding and patience of our customers during this time.

Customer Service Centers and Residential Transfer Stations will resume normal business hours.

Layon Landfill and Commercial Transfer Stations for Thursday April 16th will open at 8 a.m. with business hours extended an hour from scheduled closing time. Normal business hours will resume on Friday, April 17th.
